F C G C
Right 'round the corner down by the canyon
F C G-C/G
I met a man who lost his way.
F C G C
He said I'm the son Of a sailor
F C G-C/G
Who never showed me his face.
F C G C
My daddy's gone. And my momma met a maker
F C G-C/G
Oh to hell with that place.

Prechorus:

F C F C
So I said quit your talking Your sideways walking
F C G-C/G
Time to find another path to take.
F C F C
Quit your whining Your blood-shot crying
F C G-C/G
Faking like you're dying never pays.
C/G (4)
Just go home. You need you some

Chorus

F C G C
home. Oh you need you some
F C G-C/G
home.

F C G C
Her name was Peggy Sue. And her daddy hung the moon.

F C G-C/G
In her eyes, he could do no wrong.

F C G (hold, 2)
But then he started drinking Like there's a message in the bottle.

F C G-C/G
Now daddy's painting Peggy black and blue.

Prechorus:

F C F C
She closes her eyes Through the hero's demise.

F C G-C/G
Holds to her hope beyond the sky.

F C F C
She takes a breath. Weight comes off her chest.

F C G-C/G
She finds a way to weather through the storm.

C/G (4)
She cried out home. I need me some

I found myself on a train to California.

F C G-C/G
At twenty-five years of age.

F C G (hold, 2)
Set beside me was a lonely rose of wanderer.

F C G-C/G
Two's always better they say.

Prechorus:

F C F C
So we made our plans. She gave me a hand.

F C G-C/G
We ain't go no time for looking back.

F C F C
I was bruised and beaten. Lost for many reasons.

F C G-C/G
Only love would make you understand.
